2. Purpose and legal basis for personal data processing

Personal data are processed for the purpose of the organization of the event called Open API Hackathon 2020 (the "Event") and the evaluation of applicants who will collaborate intensively on API-based project solutions according to the terms and conditions for the Event.

Legal basis for the personal data processing is Article 6 par.1 b) of GDPR.

3. Categories of personal data that can be processed by RBI

In case of the Event the following personal data are processed by RBI:
Name, surname, e-mail, telephone number, job title/specialization or LinkedIn profile reference, CV
Related Data, name of the team

4. Photos and videos

RBI can take photos or videos during the Event for the purpose of supporting and promoting the Event and RBI, recording of memories and creation of media content within corporate communication media, or in other media (including external media and social networks) to promote event and RBI.

Based on the abovementioned facts, the photos and videos can be published.

The legal basis of personal data processing is Article 6 par.1 f) of GDPR. The legitimate interest of the Controller is to support the Event, create more possibilities to organize similar activities like the Event within which the applicants can collaborate to identify unknown business potential and develop new solutions.

5. Transfer of personal data to third countries

Personal data are not the subject of cross-border transfer to third countries that do not ensure an adequate level of personal data protection except for the cases specified by valid legal regulations or specific situations when the data subject must be notified of such transfer in advance.

6. Who can we provide your personal data to?

Your data will be provided to: RBI staff working on the Event, RBI mentors that will support you during the Event, any data processor assigned by RBI or any of RBI Group's affiliates to conduct the data processing activities (or certain parts thereof) to the necessary extent as they need the data to perform their respective service. All processors are contractually obliged to treat your data confidentially and to process the data for the provision of the respected services.

7. How long do we store your personal data?

RBI shall retain your data in a form enabling your identification for the period necessary to achieve the purpose of personal data processing. In addition, in order for RBI to contact you regarding your developed solution and/or possible cooperation after the Event, the data will be stored for three consecutive months after the end of the Event.

8. Which data protection rights do I have?

You have the right to access, rectification, erasure or restriction of the processing of your stored data, a right to object to processing and a right to data portability in accordance with the requirements of data protection law. Complaints can be addressed to the Austrian Data Protection Authority, Barichgasse 40-42, 1030 Vienna, Austria, www.dsb.gv.at. If your personal data are being processed based on the consent pursuant to Article 6 par. 1 GDPR or pursuant to Article 9 par. 2 GDPR, you are entitled to withdraw this consent at any time. However, withdrawal of consent has no impact on lawfulness of processing resulting from consent before its withdrawal.

9. Am I obliged to provide data?

As part of the business relationship, you must provide us with all personal information that is necessary to enter into and to maintain the business relationship with you, and also those data that we are required by law to collect. If you do not provide us with these data, we will generally decline either to conclude or to complete the contract/application, or we will be unable to execute an existing contract/application, or we would be forced to terminate such contract/application. However, you are not obliged to give your consent to the processing of data if such data is not necessary for the performance of a contract/application or is not required by law or regulation.

10. Is there automated decision-making?

In general, we do not use fully automated decision-making within the meaning of Article 22 GDPR in order to establish and/or to conduct a business relationship. If we should use such procedures on a case-by-case basis, we will inform you accordingly by separate notice as so provided for by law.
